PER CURIAM

ORDER

NOW, January 4, 2018, after review of the Supreme Court's opinion and review of the docket, it is ordered:

1. Upon consideration of the application to permit supplemental briefing filed by respondent Turzai and the answers filed by petitioners and by respondents Scarnati, the State Board of Education, Wolf, Rivera and the Department of Education, on or before January 25, 2018, respondents may file briefs (4 copies) that supplement the arguments made in their prior briefs regarding the preliminary objections that they previously filed. Petitioners may file a supplemental brief (4 copies) in opposition to the points made in respondents' supplemental briefs within 21 days of service of respondents' supplemental briefs. No reply briefs are permitted.
2. Upon consideration of the application to dismiss for mootness and supporting brief filed by respondent Scarnati, any brief in opposition shall be filed on or before the due date for petitioners' supplemental brief in opposition to the remaining preliminary objections.
3. The Chief Clerk shall list respondents' remaining preliminary objections and respondent Scarnati's motion to dismiss for mootness for oral argument in Philadelphia in March.
