In Philadelphia, gun violence is an epidemic. Last year, in addition to the 249 Philadelphians killed in shootings, over 1,100 people were shot and survived, leaving many with lifelong disabilities. Learn what lawyers can do to promote gun safety and take on gun violence from our expert panel:

Ben Geffen, Staff Attorney, Public Interest Law Center

Mimi McKenzie, Legal Director, Public Interest Law Center

Raynard Washington, Chief Epidemiologist, Philadelphia Department of Public Health

CLE credit is available for Pennsylvania attorneys.
